It was far greater and far more lovely than he had ever dreamed possible. And it was returned in full measure, with equal passion. The Birds by Daphne du Maurier - Mr. Schroeder's English I ... Flocks of starlings, rustling like silk, flew to fresh pasture, driven by the same necessity of movement, and the smaller birds, the finches and the larks, scattered from tree to hedge as if compelled. Nat watched them, and he watched the sea birds too. Down in the bay they waited for the tide. Fact Sheet 800 Attracting the Beneficial Tree Swallow The Tree Swallow is a distinctive bird. Medium in size, the male's underbelly and cheeks are white, with a beautiful iridescent green-blue back and wings. The female has similar markings, but her upper feathers are a duller green-blue. The male and female are about the same size.
